Subject: Update on Los Angeles Water Board management team

All,

I want to inform you if you are not aware already that Deb Smith is currently out of the office on personal leave and is not checking email or voicemail. She has designated me to act on her behalf as Executive Officer during her absence. While she hopes her leave will be as short as possible, she does not currently have a set date of return.

Therefore, please direct to me any messages or meeting appointments that you would normally direct to Deb until further notice. I may be contacted at Renee.Purdy@waterboards.ca.gov or (213) 576-6609.

I want to thank you in advance for your support. As you know, we have an excellent management team and staff here and the Board's important work continues to move forward.

Sincerely,

Renee Purdy
Assistant Executive Officer
